MISCELLANEOUS.

LOUISIANA STATE LOTTERY.

The following was passed by a unanimous vote of the Louisiana Conference:

WHEREAS, The lottery question is not only a political question, but also a moral and economic question, we feel that as Christians and ministers and laymen of the State of Louisiana we have the moral and civil right to express our views of the character and aims of the lottery company of this State now seeking a perpetuation of its charter for the term of twenty-five years. In doing so we do not in any sense become political partisans, for we antagonize the platform of no political party in the world; and

WHEREAS, We are asked as citizens of Louisiana by the advocates of the lottery amendment to our State constitution to vote for the insertion of this amendment into the body of the organic law of the State, a decent respect for ourselves, and for the opinions of mankind, renders it eminently proper for us to state as citizens the reasons, economic and moral, why we cannot give our votes in favor of the lottery amendment. We cannot because it is an immoral institution, and employs immoral methods to accumulate gain. The highest judicial authorities in the world have decided that the lottery is "the most pernicious form of gambling," and is so because it is the most insidious, alluring and deceptive of all forms of gambling. This form of gambling does not require its devotees to enter an odious gambling hell, the participant is shielded from public observation and criticism, and by secrecy escapes the odium of being a gambler, thus greatly increasing the seductive power of the temptation. As we are commanded to pray that we may "not be led into temptation," we cannot, as professedly righteous men, vote to lead others into temptation. We do not wish others to take our earnings and possessions without a full and fair equivalent; so, if we are consistent men, we cannot vote to endorse and legalize a scheme to take without just equivalent the money of the poor, the ignorant and superstitious. It would not be doing as we would be done by. As Christian men we cannot, and dare not, do anything that we cannot "do in the name of the Lord Jesus;" surely no man has the hardihood and profane audacity to insult the holiness of God by asking his blessing on gambling, legal or otherwise. We cannot as citizens and Christian men vote to sell the liberty and civil possessions of our State to corrupt men and nullify our claim to common sense by furnishing the purchase money. As Christian men we belong to a great anti-sin society, a great pro-holiness society, a spiritual and moral kingdom, which antagonizes every form of moral evil. We cannot vote to breed up a generation of gamblers. We cannot, as good men, assist to educate the young and laboring poor to believe that they may live without honest labor. We cannot, as God-fearing men, compromise with sin and do evil with the gain and blasphemous hope that good may come. No end, however exalted its claims, can sanctify the use of forbidden means, No, never while the eternal ages roll. As law-abiding men, as lovers of righteousness, we can no more vote to legalize gambling than we can vote to legalize any other form of criminality. As men, specially set apart for the defense of the truth, the condemnation of wrong and the promotion of right, we are exactly in the line of our divinely appointed duty when we oppose and denounce in truthful terms any form of moral evil; therefore,

Resolved by the members of the Louisiana Annual Conference as loyal citizens of the State of Louisiana, That we regard the lottery in its purpose and methods as evil, only evil and that continually.

Resolved, That we feel it our duty to vote and throw our entire moral influence against the proposed lottery amendment.

Resolved, That we will pray to him who loveth righteousness and hateth iniquity, to make the wrath of man to praise him and by his Providence to bring good out of these evil circumstances.

Resolved, That we respectfully memorialize the Congress of the United States, now in session, to devise and enact such laws as may be compatible with the constitution of the United States as shall operate to relieve us of the incubus and evil of the lottery, which now afflicts and hurts every interest of our State.

J. B. Walker,
Thos. J. Upton,
S. J. Davies.

CHRISTMAS OFFERINGS.

Resolved by the Louisiana Annual Conference, That we call upon the people throughout our bounds for a special Christmas offering for the purpose of paying off the debt now embarrassing our Mission Board and that the Sunday of Christmas week shall be observed as a special missionary day when thank offerings shall be called for for this purpose.

R. Randle,
F. N. Parker.

SECULAR USE OF CHURCHES CONDEMNED.

Whereas, There seems to be a growing tendency on the part of many of our people to desecrate the House of God; and

Whereas, Our houses of worship are erected for and dedicated exclusively to purposes of Divine worship; and

Whereas, There might be a possibility of losing our title to property donated to us on which to erect churches, if they are used for other purposes than those of Divine worship;

Therefore, Be it Resolved, That we unqualifiedly condemn the use of our Church buildings for any secular use whatever.

THOS. J. UPTON,
JACOB D. HARPER.

THANKS.

Resolved, That the people of Alexandria have our cordial well wishes and hearty thanks for their generous hospitality in the entertainment of this body, and that we pray that the Divine blessing may rest upon them in all things, both temporal and spiritual.

FITZGERALD SALE PARKER,
JOHN F FOSTER.

Reports of Boards and Committees.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHURCH PUBLICATIONS

There never was so much printing and publishing in any age as now. Much of the printing and publishing is promotive of increased intelligence and purer morals; but, alas! we all know too well a vast deal of the writing and publishing of our times is vicious, erroneous, and of hurtful tendency. Many books are written, directly or indirectly, against the divine origin and inspiration of the Holy Scriptures. Many newspapers are published in the interest of gambling, Sabbath desecration, and saloons; and many of them contain narratives and descriptions improper to be introduced into the sanctity of our homes.

These facts show the supreme importance and imperative need of a pure press, of a Christian literature. Self-defense and a proper self-assertion demand that we shall sustain and increase the power of our various Christian printing and publishing agencies.

The press is an auxiliary in the work of moral education, in the diffusion of sound and elevated principles, and in the uplifting of the standard of personal character, whose influence and power for good can scarcely be overestimated. Dr. Franklin, the utilitarian and common sense philosopher, says to the mechanic: "Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee." So we think it may be said with equal truth to the ministry of the church: "Sustain thy press, and thy press will sustain thee."

The report from our connectional Publishing House at Nashville shows a steady and healthy growth in the business of that large and important institution. Our standards, our hymn books and our Discipline have a large and ever-increasing sale, and every year new and important books are added to our catalogue of publications.

The Christian Advocate, our connectional organ published at Nashville, under its present able editorial management, is a first-class family religious paper, and justly deserves a largely increased circulation.

The Quarterly Review is edited with eminent abililty and taste. It has an able corps of contributors. Its pages are replete with first-class matter. Our preachers and laymen do themselves a great religious and educational wrong who fail to subscribe for and studiously read this able Quarterly. Its editor and contributors discuss with signal ability and satisfaction the live and important questions of our times.

The Sunday-school literature, both the books and various periodicals, issued by our Publishing House, for the entertainment, instruction and salvation of our children and yonng people, are most admirable, and doing much to educate our children for Christ, for glory, immortality, eternal life. Their circulation annually extends. May the coming years be as the past, and more abundant in the wide scattering of these leaves from the Tree of Life.

The report from the publisher of our Conference organ, the NEW ORLEANS CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, is most hopeful and encouraging. The paper has a steady and healthy growth, the outcome of solid merit and a growing appreciation among our people of its value. We ought to do more, and better than we have done for our home organ in Louisiana.

We have more than 20,000 white members in the Louisiana Conference, and have not quite 2000 subscribers. Surely, with the Lord's blessing assisting, we can and we ought to do greater works than these. It is our paper; our itinerant brethren are its faithful and efficient editors. They are of us, and with us, and for us, laboring for our good, our families, our people, and for the praise of our redeeming Lord. Let us be fellow-helpers in diffusing its light and increasing its power for good.

The Publishing Committee of three patronizing Conferences have elected the Rev. B. F. Lewis, of the Mississippi Conference, assistant editor, and the Rev. D. L. Mitchel, well known to us as the efficient business manager, as the publisher of the NEW ORLEANS CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE. These men, each in his place, we doubt not, will labor to the extent of their ability to furnish us a paper whose weekly issues we will hail with delight. Let us rally to their support, and shoulder to shoulder battle with them; light against darkness, and virtue against vice.

We suggest and submit for action the following:

Resolved, That we will continue to promote the sale, circulation and reading of the various publications issued by our Publishing House.

Resolved, That we will labor to extend the circulation of the NEW ORLEANS CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, and to collect the subscriptions now due within our bounds.

Resolved, That we recommend the continuation of the present Publishing House.

J. B. WALKER, Chairman.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

We feel sure that the Sunday-school statistics from which we are called to make our report are imperfect and thus not reliable. We fear that some of the preachers make their reports as to number of officers and scholars from memory and not according to the record. We have found it quite difficult to get any information other than statistical to judge from as to the success or failure in the conduct of our Sunday-schools. We notice with pleasure an increased interest in the observance of Children's Day and quite a considerable increase in the collections over last year. We trust that every preacher will see to its observance the coming year. We note with profound sorrow the lack of S. S. Missionary Societies in many of the Sunday schools. We have in all only 21 societies. We call the attention of pastors to the discipline on the question and beg them to attend to this matter. We beseech them to permit the children to help this cause. If we are to have in the coming generations of church members a right conscience on this subject of Missions we must develope and educate it in the Sunday-school. We find by canvassing the Conference that only a few pastors have organized Epworth Leagues in their charges. We have the names of 8 with a membership of 311. They have raised—for what purpose is not stated—about $200. As these Leagues are new institutions in our Church-work among the young it would be premature to pass judgment upon them as to their utility this year. The Amount raised on Children's Day this year and reported to this Conference is $385.20.

We have made the following disbursements:

Delhi District—Delhi	Circuit	$10 00
	Waterproof "	20 00

Your Committee especially request the Presiding Elders to hold a Sunday-school Conference in their Districts, as recommended by the Dicipline, paragraph 240 and page 139.

ALFRED E. CLAY,
President.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

Your Committee have had the Records of five Districts before them upon which we make the following report:

1. The Record of Arcadia District is perfect in form—chirography clear—marginal notes complete—only one error is noticed. The minutes of last session were not approved.

2. The Alexandria District Record is in bad shape—no marginal notes and badly written—but seems to be a true record of the action of that body.

3. The Delhi District Record is fairly well kept—but the minutes of the last session were not approved.

4. The Shreveport Record is well kept—perfect in form and well written, clear and legible. One error is noticed, that the minutes of the last session were not approved.

5. The Opelousas District Record is a model in all respects but one—it has no marginal notes.

N. S. CORNELL,
Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE.

One of the most powerful agencies of modern times for the enlarging of the Redeemer's Kingdom and the spreading of Scriptural Holiness throughout the ends of the earth, had its origin in a very small beginning. In fact, all the great agencies now at work for improving the moral condition of the world, had their origin in an apparently insignificant source. When we consider the triumphs of science, as manifested in wonderful inventions, and in the power of mind over matter, the present century has been marvelous. Especially is this true when we consider the development of the moral and spiritual forces at work to break down all barriers to progress, and to bring the nations of the earth into closer relations than ever before.

Our blessed Lord said: "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." Now, while the gospel is to be preached to every creature, and the Saviour's love proclaimed to all nations, we are under no less obligations to send the Bible, the Word of Life, to the millions of earth, who have no knowledge of Him who came to seek and to save them that are lost. We know that "the entrance of God's word giveth light;" how than can we feel satisfied until this beloved book enters every house and its life-giving power every heart? We ought and can do much in circulating the Word of Life. How can we best accomplish this result?

The American Bible Society, organized three-quarters of a century ago, has done and is doing a glorious work in circulating the Scriptures without note or comment, and deserves at our hands a most hearty co-operation. A part of the work of this Society is to make the Bible the cheapest of all books by placing it within the reach of the people at the mere cost of manufacture, and supplying those who are unable to purchase, gratuitously. This feature, of its work commends itself to every lover of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and ought to be an inspiratiou for nobler efforts in its behalf. Therefore Resolved, That during the month of October, 1892, we take up a collection on our respective works for the Bible cause.

ROBERT S. ISBELL,
Chairman.

REPORT OF BOARD OF EDUCATION.

At no period in our history as a people has there been so widespread and deep interest in the matter of education as at the present. The introduction, maintenance and enlargement of the public-school systems of the States and the multiplication and better equipment of the schools of the church alike bear witness to the demand, and indicate effort to meet it. Never before have facilities for education so largely determined the location of homes or furnished so productive an advertisement of the advantages of growing towns. The unprecedented activity along all lines of thought, and the intense and sustained competition in all fields of effort which are characteristic of to-day, emphasize the call for informed and disciplined minds, and the individual or the organization that fails to heed must be left behind in the onward movement. Through the wisdom, the forethought and beneficence of our fathers, Methodism in Louisiana is in position to meet this demand, and it remains only for the church to recognize, to appreciate and to enlarge her opportunity. Centenary (male) College and Mansfield College (for girls) by the amount and quality of the work already done by them, and by the work now being done by competent educators, justify the claim they make for our patronage, our prayers and our financial aid.

Centenary has had in her classes more than 150 young men during the year. A professor of Latin language and literature has been added to the faculty. The permanent endowment has been increased by more than $7000. About $1000 have been expended in repairs and improvements. Tuition has been furnished free to twenty-two young preachers during the year, and to twelve sons of preachers, representing $1520 in fees. The contributions from our Conference to the college during this year, as indicated by the report of the treasurer of the Board of Education, aggregate $647 35 for general purposes, and $303 05 for permanent endowment, in addition to the amount mentioned above. Centenary has already passed the crisis of her career. Well established in the confidence of our people, with an excellent faculty, with an ever-increasing number of honorable alumni, she needs only to be kept, by the liberality of the church, abreast with the enlarging opportunities of her position. We render the church a service when we urge her claims for large and early endowment.

The report of the president of Mansfield Female College shows that since our last Conference that institution reached the highest point of prosperity attained since the late war. In all departments—art and music, as well as literary—it is well equipped, and is doing excellent work. Our people need not send their daughters out of the State for education, while such advantages, emphasized by careful and wise Christian discipline, are furnished at Mansfield. The college building and grounds have been put in excellent condition. The sanitary conditions are all favorable, and the comfort of the pupils carefully regarded. For patronage and donations we heartily recommend this excellent school to all our people.

Resolved, That all our preachers in charge take the collection for Christian education for 1892 during the month of March, and that the sum raised over and above $800 be appropriated to permanent endowment of Centenary College.

WM. H. LAPRADE,
President.

REPORT OF BOARD OF COLPORTAGE.

Feeling deeply impressed with the urgent need of a more extensive circulation of our religious books and periodicals among our people, and also feeling assured that a depository in New Orleans offers great advantages to them in the way of a convenient depot of supplies, we have taken some pains to inquire as to the prospects for a full and permanent supply being kept in stock there.

We find that our agent and general colporteur has sold during the year about $12,000 worth of religious books; that he has now in stock a full supply and a fine assortment of religious books, as well as a good stock of stationery. We feel that he has acted wisely and well in the selection of a location for business, and are assured that he now has facilities for promptly filling orders and supplying the demands of both our preachers and people for religious literature; therefore, we offer the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we nominate F. D. Van Valkenburgh for re-election as our agent or general colporteur.

Resolved, That we will send our orders for books, periodicals and Sunday-school literature to him, to be filled, when so doing will not be manifestly to our damage as to time or expense.

Resolved, That we urge all our preachers to assist, as far as possible, in circulating our books and other literature.

Resolved, That we request each presiding elder to try and find some efficient local preacher or other reliable person who can be induced to act as colporteur and travel through his district and sell our books, and that they be requested to advise our general colporteur, as to any arrangement they may deem advisable in his case.

J. B. CASSITY,
Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

Your committee beg leave to introduce their report with the observation that intemperance in the use of strong drink is, among classified subjects, the great evil of our age and country. It destroys more property than flood, fire and earthquake. It destroys more bodies than war, pestilence and famine. It destroys more souls than theft, adultery and bearing false witness.

But this monster evil, however destructive as a mere machine or missile of death, does more damage by indirection than by first intention. It is the enemy of the government; national, state and domestic. It destroys first the happiness, and then the life of peoples, communities and families. It sits on thrones and inhabits legislative halls, and gathers about its bloated form the purple and ermine of sacred justice, and wields ballots more deadly to the prosperity of free communities than bullets. It enters into a league with red-handed crime of every description, and guarantees it life and liberty in exchange for the privilege of reigning and administering poison, pestilence and poverty in a realm of anarchy. In monarchies it is the hand-maid of seditions; in republics and infant communities it is the mammoth disorganizer. Its cost is not so many billions of dollars in excess of material supplies—food, drink and clothing and luxuries,—it is the price of a nation's liberties, it is the cost of that which is as estimationless in a realm of morals as star-dust in the gravity of the firmament.

But it not only destroys nations like the decayed States of Europe and the effete lands of the Orient; it strangles mighty civilizations like Africa that have with difficulty come to the birth, and like opium-cursed China, which for five hundred years with benumbed sensibilities, but with infinite yearning of soul, has been groping towards the light. Rum, rape and rebellion—mother and children; the three disgraces—are responsible for the ruin of more men and empires born for greatness, and for more "howling wildernesses" on the map of the world's civilization, than any other baleful combination of cause and effect than were ever born out of Satan's quiver-full, or selected by him as test weapons from magazines of death. Therefore, when we mention the subject of intemperance, let it be with invective; when we apostrophize it, let it be with double and twisted anathemas!

But not only does intemperance throttle the living and put down the aspiring; not only does it destroy bodies of men and reap down communities as a scythe-bearer; it kills the immortal spirit of man and stands watch, like Pilate's minions at the sepulchre of the world's Redeemer, over the fair corps. It says with a tone as loud as Revelation, and an emphasis as dread as the second death, that "no drunkard shall inherit the kingdom of heaven." It says and proves its proposition upon the souls of its victims, that the gospel of glad tidings shall not enter into competition with the gospel of gin. It drugs the souls that are candidates for heaven with a toxicon as deadly as the bite of an Egyptian asp, so that for long decades before requiems are said over their ashes, they "sleep the sleep that knows no waking." If it is the enemy of States and compacts, it is the deadly foe of Christianity. If it is opposed to human governments, it assails with savage might and implacable rage the divine. It has said that Christ shall not reign in the earth, and it has entered into a league with all crimes to forbid it. It will make desolations to spring up before his advancing armies, and to this end will beat plowshares into spears, and pruning-hooks into Damacus blades. To ignore it as a moral issue is to invite destruction upon its own terms. To parley with it or to attempt cajoleries upon it is worse than serpent taming or exorcism; it is the shortest and most effective method known to our age and calling of entering into a "covenant with death and a league with hell;" therefore, be it

Resolved, That, as a body of Christian ministers, we are the uncompromising enemies of the manufacture, trafic and use of intoxicants of all descriptions.

Resolved, That we will preach, teach and write against the evil of intemperance in all its forms with all the might and constancy of our office as Christian heralds.

Resolved, That we are the allies of all its foes, and the foes of all its allies, and that we will never cease to be the former and the latter, both in word and deed.

REPORT OF SECRETARY OF CONFERENCE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

One of the most striking features of present-day Christianity is the awakening on the missionary movement. As yet, it is only an awakening; the church is only beginning to open its eyes upon the wide fields white unto the harvest. We are only beginning to realize the scope and authority of the great commission, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature." The leading men of the various branches of the church are realizing the importance of this work as never before. They are watching the wonderful openings which have been set before us. They see in the signs of the times that this is the day of opportunity. There are indications which impress us profoundly with the truth that to-day the Lord of hosts expects the church to advance, as she never has advanced, in the conversion of the world. We notice the position of the mission movement in the world to-day. It is more influential than it has ever been. Statesmen, scientists, explorers, to-day recognize the great value of foreign missions. To day the world is our parish; we may enter almost where we will; the doors are open wide, Voices from the interior continents in the dark are calling to us. The Lord commands us to go, and promises to be with us. The World's Missionary Conference of two years ago brought before us profoundly significant facts. Then the unity of missionaries from all denominations from all parts of the fields, their enthusiasm, their determination, deep piety, with the wonderful presence of the Spirit of God in all their deliberations, manifested the divine power of the movement and the unlimited possibilities before us, if we but use our opportunities. The large increase in missionary literature, the facilities we have of contact with the work, and the ability to keep the church supplied with information on the subject of missions, also indicates the possibilities for work. These and many other remarkable facts compel us to realize that our mission work is on the eve of a pentecostal triumph, or of lamentable retreat. But what of the present status of our own church in regard to missions? Do we feel the power of an awakening on this subject? In some measure we do. The appointing of two field secretaries for our Mission Board by the last General Conference indicates a growing sense of responsibilities. The exhortations from our chief pastors, the Bishops; the work of our secretaries, the utterances of our church press—all feel the impulse of the present awakening. But, notwithstanding this, we are far behind. Our people and, we fear, many of our preachers are asleep. We are compelled to view our church, with a million and a quarter of members, over $100,000 in debt. Doubtless the opinion of some is correct, in the statement that this debt has caused more thinking on the subject of missions than might have been; but it still leaves us to confront a failure of a great church to meet a moderate assessment. The missionary interest in our own Conference compares favorably with that of other parts of the connection. For the year past we have raised about thirty-nine cents per capita for missions. The total amount raised for foreign missions during the year 1891 is $5,693.89. This is a slight increase over the collections of last year; but we are still $2,306.11 below the assessment. This increase is encouraging when we consider that the past year has been one of unusual financial stringency in our State. We regret to report a great deficit on the part of our Sunday-schools toward missions. Only twelve schools have rendered any report to the Conference treasurer The amount reported from Sunday-schools is $535.94 and $447.94 of this amount comes from the New Orleans district, showtng that the total raised by Sunday-schools in the other districts of the Conference is only $89. It is possible that a number of schools may have raised money, but there has been no report. We urgently recommend the brethren to secure the co-operation of our Snnday-school societies with the Conference Board by remitting their moneys through us to the Parent Board.

We wish to embrace this opportunity of urging the brethren to press the circulation of our connectional missionary organ, The Reporter, upon their people. This magazine is one of the best of the many valuable misssionary periodicals of the day. It is ably edited and admirably arranged. No Southern Methodist who wishes to be informed on the greatest enterprises of our church can do without it. We also call attention to the catalogue of missionary literature sent out by our Publishing House. Here are many valuable books on all aspects of the work. We urge our brethren to get and circulate these books. We are persuaded that the greatest factors of missionary enterprise are prayer and information. A sermon, thrilling with the missionary idea and illustrated with missionary facts, delivered in the power of the Spirit, is invincible.

In regard to our domestic work, we report some progress. Last year we helped ten missions, and contributed $200 to the support of one presiding elder. The reports from the missions, as we have heard, indicate progress.

We regret to report a falling off in our domestic mission collections. We regret this, as we are anxious to extend the work of this Board. The Board has determined to hold missionary meetings at all the District Conferences during the next year, and has authorized the president to appoint some member of the Board to attend these meetings. We trust, in this way, that a large impetus will be given to our work, both foreign and domestc. The Board requests the co-operation of pastors and presiding elders in this endeavor. The Board has resolved to concentrate its appropriations in the future on fewer points, but enlarge them so as to supply greater strength to such points as promise an early and permanent development. The Board adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the money paid to our domestic missions be paid in quarterly installments on president's order on treasurer of Conference Board.

F. N. PARKER, Secretary..

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MEMOIRS.

REV. B. F. ALEXANDER.

B. F. Alexander, the son of Amzi C. Alexander and Elizabeth Watkins Holliday, daughter of the Rev. Charles Holliday, was born near Scottsville, in Allen county, Ky., April 12, 1829. His education was received in the seminary of his native town. He was converted at home, March, 1849, and received into full church membership in December of the same year—but served as superintendent of Sabbath-school and class leader from previous June. He was licensed to exhort in 1850, and to preach on Scottsville circuit, by the Rev. N. H. Lee, P. E. He was admitted on trial in the Louisville Conference, September, 1852, at Louisville, Ky., and sent as junior preacher to Hopkinsville circuit and South Christian mission; but in February, 1853, was placed in charge of the mission for the remainder of the year. In 1853 he was sent to Rumsey circuit, but returned home after the first quarter on account of failing health. He was admitted into full connection in 1854; ordained deacon hy Bishop Paine, and transferred to Louisiana Conference, and appointed by Rev. Dr. Keener to take charge of Thibodeaux station. In 1855 he served New Iberia circuit; in 1856 the Opelousas circuit; and at the close of the year was ordained elder by Bishop Kavanaugh, at Waterproof, La. In 1857 he served the New Orleans circnit, and during the year the Algiers Church was built and paid for, and the Cadiz Street Church, of which St. Charles Avenue Church is the successor, was begun. From 1858 to 1860 he was agent for Pierce and Paine College, and in 1860 in charge of Pleasant Hill circuit. In 1861 he served the Lake Providence circuit, in 1862 the Gross Tete circuit, in 1863 the Washington circuit; but in April he entered the Confederate States Army as chaplain of the Twenty-eighth Regiment of Louisiana Volunteers, where he remained in 1864 and 1865. In June, 1855, he was appointed presiding elder of Shreveport district, and continued there through 1869—the last year increasing his labors by becoming agent for the S. W. Bible Society. On Nov. 10, 1867, he was married to Miss Frances L. Bowman, at Mansfield, La., by the Rev. John Pipes. In 1870 and 1871 he was presiding elder of Lake Providence district and agent of the S. W. Bible Society. He was in charge of Waterproof circuit in 1872 and 1873, of Tensas Chapel station in 1874, of Delhi and Madison circuit in 1875 and 1876, of Floyd circuit in 1877, of Winnsboro circuit in 1878, of Sicily Island in 1879; but in May he was made presiding elder of Delhi district by Bishop McTyeire, and continued there from year to year through 1882, and from January, 1883, to 1886 was sent to Shreveport district. In 1882 his wife departed this life. In 1887–1890 he was presiding elder of the Alexandria district. In May, 1889, he was married to Mrs. M. E. Landrum. In December, 1890, he was appointed to the Morgan City and Pattersonville circuit, where, Sept. 29, ultimo, he closed a useful life.

We feel our utter incompetence to write about such a man as Bro. Alexander. He was the most complete itinerant we have ever known. He has labored in every part of Louisiana, either as preacher in charge or as presiding elder, and no man ever did more earnest or more faithful work. He has served the church in every capacity that usually falls to the lot of a preacher. He was a painstaking pastor, keeping every department of the work in good shape. He was a model presiding elder, and with a thorough knowledge of church law and usage he combined a most efficient administration. As a college agent, he was successful as far as he went in that work. As an army chaplain, no one of that class had a stronger hold upon the affections of his soldiers. As a representative in the General Conference, he did good work in the committees and upon the Conference floor. As a preacher, he was earnest and forcible, and some of his sermons were really eloquent. He was the best Conference man we had, watching all the proceedings with sympathetic interest and oftentimes carrying the day over much opposition. No man among us could be so missed on the Conference floor as he will be. He loved the church with a sincere love and worked for her interests with an untiring devotion. Being well known all over the Conference, he will be missed everywhere and mourned by everyone. He suffered much during his last illness, bnt that suffering was the last process through which the Holy Spirit led his trusting spirit, and we do not doubt that when he awoke on the other side of death, he awoke to the consciousness of a perfect likeness to the Savior he loved so well and served so faithfully on earth.

Wemay add to this excellent and comprehensive notice from our Advocate a few words more. Some one has said, the place where the good dies is favored beyond the common walks of life, because it is the place where the last battle of many campaigns is fought, where the last victory is won that ends the war, in endless peace, and crowns the victor with life eternal. We are satisfied from many affirmations of the dying, that Our Father sometimes lifts the veil that but thinly intervenes between us and the fair country we seek. One who was nearest and dearest told me our departed brother just before the moment of his looseing came said, like Stephen, "I see the Lord, the heavenly host. I hear the music of their songs." Filled with more than mortal raptüre by these visions and strains of heavenly song, it is not wonderful, but it would have been wonderful if he had not said: "I am saved, cut the cords and let me go." Gravitation shifting had turned the other way, and his liberated soul rose like an exhalation and ascended to be with his risen Lord. What better can we wish than to live and die like our glorified brother.

J. B. Walker and Thos. H. McClendon.

REV. JOHN PIPES.

Bro. Pipes was one of our charter members and one of our most faithful members and few have done more and endured more than he. He has served all portions of the State and all classes of works and has very efficiently filled every one. Without further statement, we append the Obituary article by Dr, Carter, the Editor of the New Orleans Christian Advocate.

John Pipes was born in Ouachita parish, La., Feb. 21, 1818. In his boyhood the church services of the neighborhood were held at his father's house. He was converted Oct. 14, 1840. while on his way to a camp meeting near Minden, La., at which place he was received into the church by the Rev. Richmond Randle. In 1842 he received license to exhort from the Rev. Edwin Phillips, pastor of Ouachita circuit. In 1843 he was licensed to preach by the Quarterly Conference where the Rev. D. M. Wiggins, P. E., presided, and was admitted on trial into the Mississippi Conference at Woodville, at the close of this year, and was sent to Caddo circuit as junior preacher, with the Rev. P. M. Goodwyn. In 1844 Bishop Janes, who presided at the Conference convened at Port Gibson, sent him to Monroe circuit as junior preacher with the Rev. R. M. Crowson. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Soule at New Orleans in 1845, and was sent to East Feliciana circuit as junior preacher with the Rev. Thomas Clinton. In January, 1847, he was present at the organization of the Louisiana Conference, and was sent to Andrew Chapple in New Orleans. At the next Conference which met at Minden, Bishop Paine ordained him elder, and sent him to Preston Colored Mission, which work he served three years successively, viz., 1848, 1859 and 1850. In 1851 he was sent to Chicot circuit, and in 1852 to Milliken's Bend, La.; in 1853 and 1854 to Mansfield and Pleasant Hill; in 1855 to Homer circuit; 1856 and 1857 to Bastrop circuit; in 1858, 1859 and 1860, Shreveport district as presiding elder. In 1861 and 1862 he served the Pleasant Hill circuit; in 1863, 1864 and 1865—as a war measure—the Natchitoches mission. The next four years, from 1866 to 1869, he was on Mansfield circuit, when he was placed on the Shreveport district from 1870 to 1873. Thence he was moved to DeSoto circuit, which he served four years, from 1874 to 1877, and was sent the next four years to Logansport mission. In 1882 and 1883 he was on the Caddo circuit, and in 1884 was placed on Grand Cane circuit. At the Conference in Minden, January, 1885, Bro. Pipes, in a very effecting talk, asked to be placed upon the superannuated list, which was done with regret by all. From that time on he lived for heaven, and, so far as he was able, worked for the good of his fellows. In 1849 he was married to Miss Harriet Postell Shaffer, who bore to him four children, and who, for over forty-two years, was a helpmate worthy of such a man.

Bro. Pipes was a man of the most transparent character. His simplicity was very marked. His integrity of purpose was above question. His earnestness in work was rarely equalled. His love for his friends was beautiful to see. His devotion to the church was never excelled. His quietness of manner was most striking. His preaching was fervent, practical and pathetic. His administration of discipline was loving and judicious. His purity of life was a most attractive exhibition of the power of divine grace. He loved God and worshipped him most devoutly. He loved men and wrought diligently for their physical, mental and moral improvement. Louisiana Methodism has received much from the life and work of her loved and loving son, Rev. John Pipes.

For several years Bro. Pipes has been in a low state of health. He went on a visit to his daughter in the early Summer, in the hope that a more bracing climate would recover him sufficiently to enable him to meet his brethern once more in Conference. This was the great desire of his heart, expressed in a letter to the editor just as he was leaving for Missouri. God had better things for him. That trip was the last earthly journey, and in the midst of those he loved so well he passed into the beautitudes above. The writer loved him as a father, and the tears flow at the thought that we shall see him no more on earth. Respected by all his brethren, highly esteemed by his friends, honored of all men, loved by his Savior, he lived and wrought and has attained to his reward. A day before his death he dictated the following letter:

Dear Bishop Keener and Members of the Louisiana Conference—

It was my greatest earthly desire to see you again and be with you at Conference. This I am denied. Since Aug. 1, three long months, I have been prostrated from sickness; not able to get up when I was down without help. I shall see you no more, my precious friends, especially mine among the older members of the Conference. I learned to love you all very much, especially you, my dear Bishop. I have been deprived these three months of any religious privileges—have not seen a Methodist preacher. When you think of me, think of me as being very, very happy on the other shore. This is what I have lived for, and I have attained to my reward. My dear love to you and the brethren.

Yours in love,

JOHN PIPES.

P. S.—

Dear Dr. Carter: All that love can do has been done for my precious father, but without avail. He is passing from us. He dictated the above letter this morning, a copy of which he wished sent to you.

MRS. W. R. JONES.
